

Dear Friends,

«Global Air – American Express» expresses its sincere gratitude to you and glad to provide the following information:

Lufthansa As of August 01, 2012 Airbus A380 will take you to the one more US city: our flagship liner will perform daily flights to Houston. In addition, from mid-May resumed flights to New York on A380s. With the beginning of the summer schedule from March 25, 2012 you can again go to the California's megapolis San Francisco instead of Miami. Daily flights to Johannesburg, Beijing, Tokyo and Singapore continue to persist in our schedule.

Lufthansa was awarded by IATA as a «Fast Travel Award» for the simplicity, speed and flexibility of processes. The main purpose of the initiative of "fast travel" is the quickest and comfortable transit for passengers inside the airport and reducing the waiting time

The holders of Miles & More cards with Frequent Traveler status are become available a service of automatic registration. If the participant has been included in the profile with appropriate remark, automatic registration will be done within 23 hours prior to departure. The service is available on 160 directions.

An increasing number of aircraft of Lufthansa, serving long-haul routes, are equipped with Lufthansa FlyNet ® system, for the first time providing passengers with broadband Internet access. We are pleased to announce that the service is now available on flights to the Middle East.

In the summer schedule 2012 Lufthansa will offer its customers two new routes from Munich to Montpellier and Poole. We recommend this route for passengers wishing to go to the Mediterranean coast of France or the northern part of Croatia.

Berlin - an important destination for business travelers, business center and the third largest market for conferences in Germany. Lufthansa will offer over 30 different flights (including a Moscow airport Vnukovo) from the new Airport Berlin-Brandenburg since June 3, 2012. Your customers will appreciate the convenience of the new airport and transfer opportunities

Austrian Airlines increases flights frequency Vienna-Klagenfurt and from March 1 will offer up to 5 connections per day from Russian cities to the capital of Carinthia. This region offers recreation and beautiful weather, and varied in complexity and quality hills, and wells. Carinthia literally strewn with thermal spas and SPA-hotels. The new flight OS933 will depart from Vienna at 07:20 am, so for the beginning will be convenient for morning connections from Moscow to Klagenfurt. The return flight OS934 will depart from capital of Carinthia at 08:30 am, providing a more comfortable return from Austria to Rostov, Krasnodar and St. Petersburg.

KLM To mark new convenient departure schedule from Almaty, KLM is pleased to announce a Winter Sale. 50 worldwide destinations at a discount of up to 25%!
